<sup>1</sup>Defendant also filed a "(Supplemental) Motion to Vacate, Set Aside, or Correct Sentence by a Person in Federal Custody - 28 U.S.C. § 2255" (document No. 139) on January 30, 2001. The only change from the initial motion was that the supplemental motion contained Defendant's signature.

Title 18 U.S.C. § 2255 clearly states:

A second or successive motion must be certified as provided in section 2244 by a panel of the appropriate court of appeals to contain -

(1) newly discovered evidence that, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that no reasonable factfinder would have found the movant guilty of the offense; or

(2) a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable.

Defendant has not obtained the requisite certification from the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. As such, this Court lacks jurisdiction to consider Defendant's present Motion.
